A popular airport of entry, you normally land from the South. Fuel pumps are adjacent to the terminal building where customs, immigration, and flight service are all located. Airport is fenced and well guarded.

Guaymas

Guymas is located on the Sea of Cortez and is a favorite of many Americans. Located between the city of Guymas and the area known as San Carlos, it is in an ideal location. Though the city of Guymas is old Mexico, San Carlos is "Gringo-ville". Many Americans have second homes here as well as several major hotels are located right on the beach. Club Med has a club just North of San Carlos. (Catch 22 was filmed here) Howard Johnson has a hotel here as well as several others.

My favorite is the Hotel Playa de Cortes. It has about 100 rooms, a pool, a great dining room, and is located right on the bay. This grand old hotel was built by the railroad and has massive walls and high ceilings. It is old but has the charm of an era past. When you get there, ask for an upgrade to one of the suites. (You will thank me later)
